Forty-eight nights, four legs, and 171,200 seats across the Philippines, Australia, Canada and the U.S.

The Philippines run is thirty Saturdays from February to November 2027, three a month, ten per island group. Australia and Canada are now two separate trips rather than one, the Philippines dates bend around the U.S. festival weekends rather than the other way round, and the ten overseas rooms are sized off the Filipino census instead of a guess.

Thirty stops, ten per island group, three a month. Naga moved to 17 Apr, Laoag to 24 Apr, Ormoc to 19 Jun and Tacloban to 24 Jul so no Philippines show sits on a U.S. festival weekend. Capacity is venue seating, not a ticket forecast.

WHAT TRAVELS

One crew, local backline in every city.
Shells, risers, amps, stands and local crew are rented city by city and shared by all three acts, confirmed in writing at T-14. Only artist-critical kit rides: guitars, basses, pedalboards, drum module and triggers, cymbals, snares, keys, vocal mics, IEM packs and the playback rig.

WHAT CHANGED SINCE 31 OCTOBER

- Australia moved out of January into December 2027. Five dates, 1 to 11 Dec: Sydney, Melbourne, Brisbane, Adelaide, Perth. No Q1 start.
- Canada is its own trip, 24 Feb to 2 Mar 2028. Adelaide to Vancouver is twenty-plus hours in the air across an eighteen-hour clock change, so Canada now hangs off the San Francisco date on 19 Feb instead of following Australia.
- U.S. festival dates are fixed anchors. San Diego, Las Vegas, LA, San Francisco, Honolulu, Chicago, New York and New Jersey do not move; the Philippines legs bend around them.
- Overseas rooms are sized to census. 22,200 seats across ten cities against a Filipino cohort of 990,600, at roughly 2% of cohort a night.
- No backtracking. Australia runs east to west and ends in Perth for the short flight home; fourteen trips in total, nine of them single-show festival anchors.

The run in one line: thirty Philippines Saturdays, five Australian nights in December, five Canadian nights off the San Francisco date in February, and the eight U.S. festival weekends, all on one repeatable call sheet.

Eight U.S. hubs				35,000

The ask to Rockstar: title the U.S. leg, activate at four of the eight.

- Billing. “Rockstar Wireless presents Midnasty & Friends” on all eight U.S. dates, on every poster, ticket, screen and press line, with the H4H Festival Network mark alongside.
- Chosen activation dates. San Diego 10 Apr 2027, Los Angeles 4 Jul 2027, San Francisco 19 Feb 2028 and Honolulu 18 Mar 2028, the four where a Filipino festival crowd is already assembled and the booth has a captive audience. Las Vegas, Chicago, New York and New Jersey carry branding and a subscriber offer, not a build.
- Pinoy activation. SIM and eSIM activation desk staffed in Tagalog and Bisaya, subscribe-on-site plan, a Rockstar Room VIP upgrade for new subscribers, phone-charge lounge, and a QR to the plan page pushed from the stage and the MC between sets.
- The audience. 1,913,218 Filipino Americans live in the eight hub metros. The leg plans 35,000 seats and 24,500 attendees, and the community skews to exactly the prepaid-to-postpaid upgrade Rockstar wants.
- What it costs them. A production underwrite of 650,000 moves break-even from 109.5% to 78.5% of the gate, which is the difference between a vanity sponsorship and a tour that runs a second year.

COMMERCIAL SHAPE, ALL LEGS

- Merch 70/30 on defined net profit, H4H 70 to the act 30, recouping only pre-approved documented cost first.
- Master collection plus city limiteds sold per stop, artist approval on every product.
- Co-promoters in every non-finale city carry local marketing and the local opener casting.
- Settlement within five business days of each stop.

OPEN ITEMS ON THIS DOCUMENT

- Overseas venues are first-choice targets, not holds. Holds and offers go out after the December Midnasty conversation.
- The Rockstar package stays internal until you and I agree the shape; nothing goes to their team before that.
- Mindanao sequencing still carries one avoidable north-south hop, left alone because the dates may be tied to LGU approvals.

The overseas line: ten nights sized to the Filipino census in Australia and Canada, eight U.S. festival weekends already anchored, and a title sponsor package for Rockstar Wireless that pays for the U.S. production instead of decorating it.

Where the crew rests, and the dates that are safe to rest on.

Rest was built first and the shows placed around it. Every window below is a minimum of two nights, clears the adjacent show by at least 48 hours, and sits on a direct flight or a single connection. The two Pacific crossings per trip are the only long-haul days on the calendar.

15 – 17 Nov 2028	New York and New Jersey	3 nightsThe close of the run, with a day after the last curtain.

WHAT IS VETTED, AND WHAT IS NOT

- Dates: vetted. Each window was tested against the show list. No rest block begins within 48 hours of a curtain, and no travel day carries a show at either end.
- Locations: chosen and checked. Manila, Cebu, Adelaide Hills, Perth, San Francisco, Banff, Toronto, Honolulu, Chicago, New York. Each sits within two hours of the next show city by air or road.
- Not yet held. No hotel block, apartment or vehicle is reserved. Blocks go out leg by leg once the December Midnasty conversation settles, and nothing gets paid before you and I agree it.

THE TRAVEL DAYS

- Fourteen trips, fourteen outward travel days. The long-haul pattern is Manila to the U.S. west coast (13 hours), Manila to Sydney (9), Perth to Manila (7), and Toronto to Manila via Vancouver (18 door to door).
- No red-eye into a show. Every crossing lands at least two nights before the first curtain of its trip.
- Australia ends in Perth so the flight home is seven hours rather than nineteen. That single resequencing removed a full travel day and a night in a hotel.
- Canada hangs off San Francisco for the same reason: one crossing in, one crossing out, instead of a second round trip from Manila.

One line on rest: the route is built so the crew is never more than three shows from a two-night stop, and the Philippines leg carries three blocks of a week or longer before the overseas dates begin.
